

Parking at the Doane Stuart School, 199 Washington Avenue, Rensselaer is limited. On Sunday, please car pool!! We hope to have more than 300 people in attendance, so parking will be a challenge.

There are three smallish parking lots next to the school (marked 1, 2, 3 below). Note that area 3 is also next to the best handicapped entrance & drop-off loop. We are also invited to use the larger parking lot (#4 below) behind the Sikh Temple at 301 Washington, which is the building on the corner of Washington and Manor Dr.

Lot #4 is just a few houses' walk from the school along Lincoln Terrace.
