

Finding Justice

A Conversation about Cops, Communities, and the Search for Common Ground

Wednesday, January 21 at 7:00 p.m.
First Unitarian Universalist Society of Albany
405 Washington Avenue

Join us for a discussion of recent events, the impact of those events on our nation and our communities, and the potential paths forward.

Panelists include:

Dr. James Acker – Professor, UAlbany School of Criminal Justice

Ms. Danielle Brutus – Master's Student, UAlbany and Former Civil and Human Rights Policy Intern

Reverend Dr. Edward Smart – Pastor, Israel AME Church

Mr. Frank Wiley – Chief, UAlbany Police Department

Dr. Robert Worden – Professor, UAlbany School of Criminal Justice

If you would like to submit a question or comment for our panelists, please send it to justiceinstitute@albany.edu or complete the form at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/FindingJustice>

A reception will follow to continue the conversation over refreshments.

This event is free and open to the public.

It is co-sponsored by the Justice and Multiculturalism in the 21st Century Project (UAlbany School of Criminal Justice) and the First Unitarian Universalist Society of Albany.