

What FUUSA means to me . . .

"I could never pay what FUUSA is worth to me; that crazy group of people and ideas is immeasurable."

Darnell Rohrbaugh

"In the river of life, FUUSA is like a life raft I can hold on to and take a break when the rapids are too tough."

Frank Woods

Home for heart and head

Beloved community

FUUSA serves the world

-Dawn Dana

Black white brown "other"

Wanted and, too, rejected

Here can be a home

Anonymous

'It's a religious community that challenges me and helps me in my quest to become a better person'.

Michael Hornsby

Dr. King said, "Everybody can be great because anybody can serve." I have never been part of a community that exemplifies that spirit more than FUUSA. I am grateful to be a part of a congregation so committed to social justice.

Jaye Holly

Behold the bold group
Learning to be one around

Inertia is strong

Anonymous

"FUUSA is the only place where I can be friends with really cool 2 year olds and 90 year olds while at the same time listening and acting openly on feelings from my inner self."

Chuck Manning

What FUUSA means to me . . .

“FUUSA SOUP - “Nourishment for My Life”

Recipe by Randy Rosette

Add liberal amounts of caring, compassion, support and humor,

Toss in a handful of bettering our community and world,

Sprinkle on children, elders, and everyone in between,

Mix in diverse opinions and thoughtful conversation,

Combine music, art, and meaningful words,

Stir in respect and openness to differences,

Additional Ingredient (NOT OPTIONAL):

Drizzle with that special factor that only YOU can add to the FUUSA SOUP in our lives.

*Connection and food
Fellowship and sisterhood
Music, books, and joy
Anonymous*

