This practice works on the fascia, dense connective tissue, to allow for flexibility and ease of movement. Bring a mat and blocks if you have them. 9:15-10:30 Conversing with Our Deeper Selves: a creative/spiritual journey with Pam Collins Sproul A presentation on the power and process of writing as spiritual practice and a discussion of the insights experienced by this writer. Includes brief readings from her works. 9:15-10:30 Star Island Bead Making with Anna Brewer, Hanae Garrison, Josh Satin Field A tradition from Star Island using strips of paper and melted wax to create beads you can string. 9:15-10:30 Poetry and Nature with Sigrin Newell Gullen rain back up Meet on Inn South Porch Thankfulness and joy create a cathedral of trees in the Autumn. Experience Silver Bay woods with eyes of the spirit. Take a short walk on level land, stopping often to read Mary Oliver's poetry and observe with all our senses. Seeing the forest in this way can deepen our connection to nature. 9:15-10:30 How Do You Distinguish Between "US" and "Them"? A guided Discussion Morse with Jaye Holly, Betsey Miller & Reese Satin Each of us divides humanity into those we feel some degree of affinity for (our team/"us") and those who we are suspicious of (the others/"them"). In this discussion, we will explore your basis for making these distinctions – what characteristics do you use, how do these distinctions vary by the context in which you make them, how permanent are they throughout our lives and what are the benefits and disadvantages of these distinctions? 9:20-10:20 Silver Spirit boat tour Advance sign up & payment at Inn Desk; limited to 12 Main Dock Gift Shop and Ice Cream/Snack Bar open 10 - 7The Store 10:30-12:15 29th Annual Hike to Sunrise Mountain with the Mannings Meet at Flag Pole in front of Inn 2 mile moderate/difficult hike has an elevation change of about 900 feet with pretty continual ascent & the last part is almost a "scramble. Parents will learn what to expect if they want their child to learn music, as well as how to support them though what can be a lifelong activity. Bryan has had over 25+ year career in public education and has built a business that brings music to over 800 students each week. The Art of Conversation with Bill MacTiernan This presentation starts with an 10:45-12 Boathouse assertion of the essential separateness of each individuals from all others. It then goes on to define a "conversation" and propose it (conversation), as a salve, but not a cure, for existential loneliness. Last, is the claim that what binds UUs together is nothing more or less than a desire and willingness to engage in conversation. Ample time will be provided at the end for feed-back a/k/a "conversation". 11:30-12 TemporaryTattoo Parlor with Jill Peckenpaugh Inn Lobby 11:30-1 Dining Room Lunch 12:15-1 Vendors in corner of Gullen Lounge; stop by and visit authors and crafters Gullen
